1. Introduction

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals applying for jobs at the Trust. We, Swale Academies Trust, Ashdown House, Johnson Road, Sittingbourne, ME10 1JS are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Successful candidates should refer to our privacy notice for the school workforce for information about how their personal data is collected, stored and used.

Our data protection officer is Invicta Law Ltd (see 'Contact us' below).

2. The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those applying to work at the Trust. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details;
- Copies of right to work documentation;
- References;
- Evidence of qualifications;
- Employment records, including work history, job titles, training records and professional memberships.

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions;
- Disability and access requirements;
- Photographs and CCTV images captured in school.

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about criminal convictions and offences.

We may also hold data about you that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and social services, and the Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of criminal offence data.

3. Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to aid the recruitment process by:

- Enabling us to establish relevant experience and qualifications;
- Facilitating safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils;
- Enabling equalities monitoring;
- Ensuring that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for candidates that require them;

4. Our legal basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation;
- Carry out a task in the public interest.

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way;
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests).

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time.

We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so. Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the Trust's use of your data.

4.1 Our basis for using special category data

- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law;

- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law;
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest.

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in UK data protection law. Conditions include:
